

Kado Sensho Ikenobo School of Ikebana

Sensei Margy Metzler

Supply Information

Special fresh flowers are provided each week for class by the instructor. The fee is $30 per person per class. Total is $150.

There is also a One Time Fee of $100 which includes the following:

Hasami - special Ikebana clippers, and the Kenzan is also specific to this study. Each are $40.

The Instructional book is usually $30, but it is discounted to $20 for attendees.

Both of these fees are payable to the instructor on the first day.

*If you are bringing your own container, it needs to be a rectangle, square or round container that is at about 9" round or long and have 2" sides or sides tall enough to cover the Kenzan with water. The container should be either ceramic or pottery with no hole in the bottom.

The instructor will call each new student before class to talk about the container.

Sensei Margy will have some containers for sale as well.
